CLASS PROPHECY

It is the opinion of many people, there never has been and there never will be again a class like the Senior Class of 1952. To see what the class members will accomplish in their lives, we shall now get on the Magic Carpet of Time and float 20 years into the future.

Starting out from Fountain we float south, and as we pass over Canon City we see what we think is Jimmy Chancellor as Warden. But---what is he? Warden or trustee?

Looking over Mexico we see a bull fight going on, and much to our amazement we discover that Robert Jaramillo is the Matador. He has held the title of champion bullfighter for three years now.

As we come back through Arizona, we find Tom Kane as sheriff of Cactus Hill, noisily disturbing peace.

Going on to California we see Delma Edgar surrounded by her eight playful children, trying to answer their questions of "how high is up" and "where did I come from", as she washes diapers in the Pacific Ocean.

We also find Darrel Powell busy in his auto shop as the best auto wrecker and repairer that has hit the West Coast since 1955.

Farther out in the Pacific, we find on his battleship, "The U.S.S. Sally", Admiral Jess Foster looking through his spyglasses, searching for islands, but spotting bathing beauties instead.

Going on to Hawaii we see much pretty scenery---and what's this we see in neon lights? Why it's Romaine Whalen, billed as the top entertainer in the Hula Hula Club, Inc. of Honolulu.

Coming back into the U.S. we hear a great noise and see a bright flash. We recognize the face looking out the port hole to be that of Ray Perriman as he passes in his rocketship destined for the Moon.

When we reach Chicago we find Roger Kerr in the grunt and groan business. No, he's not a wrestler, but a bone brecking chiropracter.

Floating to the Northeast Coast and around the vicinity of Boston, we hear Charles Frauenthoff beating his ragtime version of the Minuet in G, in the Philhormonic Orchestra.

Tuning in on our two-way radio, we hear a lot of static---no, wait a minute, it's Grant Gorman taking over Walter Winchell's spot, and doing a very fine job.

Taking a dip over the New York area, we smell a delicious aroma, which we find is coming from a small Hot Dog Stand on Coney Island. Larry Morrel as the proprietor, is considered the best hamburger slinger, with onion, for miles around.

As we pass over West Point, the Military Accademy for Boys, we find Dorothy Ermel teaching the boys their dating etiquette in the fashion she administered, before marrying a buck private.

What's this turmoil we hear as we pass over Washington D.C.? A woman has finally hit the high spots in politics. Mildred Janitell is now the Justice of the Supreme Court.

In Florida we find LeeRoy Aragon, a retired boxer, who has now settled down to a quiet home life, after giving up hope of becoming a 2nd Joe Louis.

Floating over the backwoods of Arkansas we see a tumbledown farm, and a barefooted woman. Lo and behold! It's Peggy Hickie slopping her hogs.

As we glide down into Louisanna we see the great sailor of our class, John Evans, coming in on a Shrimp Boat.

When we come back through Kansas, at Ft. Riley, we encounter Mary Lujan, who is now a Four Star General and really panning out orders.

As we pass through Cuckleburr, Colorado, we unexpectedly find Bonnie Jenkins, who has the reputation as being the best hair stylist for 50 miles around.

We pass over Pikes Peak and hear a roar and see a cloud of dust. It's Earl Baker trying to take Al Rogers' place in the Pikes Peak Hill Climb Race.

Coming into Fountain again we see a small crowd of people, and in the middle is Dannie Martin standing on a soap box campaigning for Mayor.

Finally, on our last flight, we take a visit to the good old Fountain High School, and we find that Miss Corlett has retired and that Florence Wallace is now the new math teacher. Florence, in her spare time, looks after her 5 & 10 Cent Store, recently opened in Fountain.

Ending our journey, we pause to wish the class of "52" as much success the next twenty years as they have had this past twenty.

CLASS WILL

We, the CLASS OF 1952, of Fountain High School, being of sound (???) mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

I, John Evans, will my ability to drive my Ford and wear my Cowboy boots to George Kerr.

I, Dorothy Ermel, will the traditional bag of Bull Durham to Howard Wilson.

I, Roger Kerr, will my hat and my long legs to Lew Hanson.

I, Delma Edgar, will my beautiful long blonde hair to Janice Voorhees.

I, Ray Perriman, will my ability to get my French papers in, to Ann Hooper. (And I sure am a good Crosely machanic.)

I, Robert Jaramillo, will my great height to Dave Million.

I, Florence Wallace, will my place in the Senior Class to any poor unfortunate Junior who wants it.

I, Charles Fraunhoeff, will my ability to be onery to Jerry Harrison.

I, Romaine Whalen, will my ability to play the trombone to Mr. Shipton.

I, Darrel Powell, will my ability to drive to Greg Gorman.

I, Mary Lujan, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Bill Steer.

I, Earl Baker, will my ability to be seen with a different girl every time the weather changes, and then some, to Wallace Butler.

I, Mildred Janitell, will my ability to cheerlead to Lola Mae Wilson.

I, Larry Morrell, will my last dollar to the poor, indebted Juniors who really need it.

I, Jim Chancellor, will my weight to Bob Cordova so he can play tackle on the football team. Don't chase women with it, 'cause it wears you out!

I, Peggy Hickie, will my ability to get along with boys to Donna Price.

I, Dannie Martin, will my big, loud, mouth to Jane Leonard.

I, LeeRoy Aragon, will my ability to be loud and attract attention to Bill Wilson.

I, Bonnie Jenkins, will my ability to get along with Mr. Corman to Bill Leonard.

I, Jess Foster, will my handsome physique to Mike Keyte.

I, Grant Gorman, will my ability to get along with Sandra Groves to George McGee.

I, Tom Kane, will my calm, well-controlled, temper to Lynn Shelton.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we, the CLASS OF 1952, the testators of this our will, set our hands and seals this first day of May, Nineteen-Hundred Fifty-two.
